6:15 p.m. Presentation of Winston Prouty Housing Development Concept

We will have a presentation of the proposed housing project on the Winston Prouty campus, formerly the campus of the Austine School for the Deaf, in Brattleboro. This project came about through a highly-inclusive community engagement process around the future use of the campus, and has resulted in a conceptual plan for a major housing development intended to build community as it provides hundreds of much-needed units. The planning and design process are noteworthy, as is the importance of thinking about how to develop housing at a scale necessary to meet current and future needs.
