4:10 p.m. Windham Regional Transportation Plan Update Discussion

The Committee will continue discussing updates to the Windham Regional Transportation Plan as part of the ongoing update to the Windham Regional Plan. The Committee will review a revised draft of the updated transportation section of the Windham Regional Plan. We will also discuss the tentative timeframe for the development plan and the next steps in the review process.

4:30 p.m. Windham Regional Transportation Program

Staff will present on ongoing work with the Windham Regional transportation program and towns, and discuss services available to towns. This includes traffic, pedestrian and bicycle counts, work with town highways, culvert inventories and project development and management. We will also discuss long range planning efforts around the state relevant to towns in the Windham Region.

4:50 p.m. Class 4 Town Highways and Connectivity

The Committee will discuss challenges and best practices in the management of Class 4 Town Highways and Legal Trails, as well as their impact on regional connectivity. This is a common challenge for towns across Vermont in a changing development and transportation landscape for rural communities. The Windham Regional Transportation Committee will examine what role we may play in addressing these challenges across the region.

5:00pm Summer Schedule and Open Meeting Law Changes

The Committee will discuss upcoming meeting topics and our schedule over the summer months, as well as the upcoming changes to Vermont Open Meeting Law that will impact the committee.
