4:10 p.m. Discussion of Rockingham Depot Street Bridge Project

WRC Commissioner and Rockingham Selectboard member, Rick Cowan, will update the Committee on the Depot Street Bridge project. The project to replace the aging Depot Street bridge, which connects Downtown Bellows Falls with the Island and Amtrak station, has been delayed several times due to ongoing financial challenges at the Agency of Transportation. Now scheduled for 2031, the project, in addition to replacing the existing bridge, will also construct a new dedicated bicycle and pedestrian bridge over the Bellows Falls canal. This project is an important part of larger plans for the redevelopment of the Bellows Falls Island as well as expansion of passenger rail service in Rockingham. Staff from the Vermont Agency of Transportation visited the existing bridge in November to hear from Rockingham town staff and residents on the importance of this bridge in the larger context of Bellows Falls.

4:30 p.m. Open Discussion of Transportation Committee Topics

The Committee will have an open discussion transportation topics and ongoing challenges that are of interest to Committee members and their towns. VTrans has once again delayed the Statewide Project Prioritization process, generally a major component of the Committee's work in the spring and early summer, giving the committee increased flexibility for discussion and exploration of relevant transportation issues moving forward this year. The discussion will focus on particular transportation related issues that the Committee would like to explore in more detail in the coming months.
